

DAISY AWARD
(Council Level – Senior Girl Scouts)

The Daisy Award is given to a Senior Girl Scout in recognition of outstanding service to the community during her 12th grade year in Senior High School. Two awards may be given each year presented at the Annual Meeting of the Council.

Criteria:

1. The candidate is a registered Senior Girl Scout.
2. The candidate is currently in the 12th grade.
3. The candidate has provided outstanding community service.

Nomination:

An individual or group familiar with the service performed submits an application or narrative account that documents the type of service performed in the community, both Girl Scouting and beyond. Documentation must show how the nominee has taken what she has learned as a Girl Scout and applied it to her work in the community.

Three Senior Girl Scouts familiar with the service performed submit endorsements to the council's recognition's task group.

Approval:

The recognition's task group reviews the completed applications and makes the determination. The recognition's task group notifies the nominating group or individual.

Form of Recognition:

The Daisy Award is a silver charm engraved with Daisy Award and year date on one side while the other side is engraved with the winners' first initial.

A bouquet of daisies is also recommended to accompany the charm.
